REPORT NO.

1. An open Communist meeting held in Guayaquil on 25 February 1949 for the purpose of honoring the first anniversary of the present Czechoslovakian government was a failure as not one member of the Guayaquil Czechoslovakian colony was present, in spite of the fact that the meeting was announced beforehand in the newspapers.
2. The meeting was similar in nature to the one recently held in honor of the Communist victories in China.* Elias Munoz Vicuna,** newly appointed Secretary General of the Guayaquil Local Committee of the Communist Party of Ecuador, was the principal speaker. He discussed the advancement which the Czechs had made under President Gottwald.
